

Endowing Future Excellence

Since 1986, the University of the Aftermarket Foundation (formerly the AWDA University Foundation) has provided funding for aftermarket educational programs and research. Through its grant program, the Foundation and its donors ensure that education has a positive, stabilizing influence on the future of the aftermarket.

Thanks to your generous donations, the University of the Aftermarket Foundation has been able to fund over $2 million in scholarships, grants and ongoing educational programs to help develop the future leaders of the automotive aftermarket.

With your help, we would like to do even more.

To make a donation to the University of the Aftermarket Foundation, please fill out the form below and send to:
